to fill the needs of a growing hispanic market there has been a dramatic increase in the number of bilingual books being published in recent years but they have been appearing for many years this bibliography lists more than 400 children's titles mostly picture books with alphabet and counting books also included that feature text in both spanish and english in the same volume annotations to the entries provide a summary of each book's contents along with information on awards the book has received and a list of reviews gathered from children's book review index this bilingual edition includes introduction table of contents and subject indexing in both english and spanish en los últimos años los editores estadounidenses han tratado de ponerse al día en lo que respecta al mercado de publicaciones en español en auge constante y lo han hecho basicamente incrementando el lanzamiento de libros bilingues para ninos cabe matizar sin embargo que este tipo de publicaciones ha sido una practica vigente desde hace anos el presente compendio bibliografico incluye mas de 400 titulos bilingues para ninos la mayoria de ellos libros de ilustraciones ademas de publicaciones relativas a las letras del alfabeto y el aprendizaje de los numeros las notas que se incluyen en esta obra resumen los contenidos de cada libro junto a resenas y premios relativos a los mismos

this work demonstrates that twentieth century nicaraguan poetry can not be comprehended in its fullest dimension without an understanding of the literary traditions of france and the united states ever since ruben dario established hispanic america s literary independence from spain in the nineteenth century with his modernista revolution poets in nicaragua actively have engaged in a dialogue with the works of french and north american authors as a means of assimilating and transforming them and thereby inventing a profoundly nicaraguan literary identity this process has resulted in what might be called a double genealogy in nicaraguan poetry certain poets attracted to the alchemical properties of the poetic word and a transcendent mythic meta reality seem to have descended from french literary forebears others interested in an expansive poeticized version of history and verisimilitude have roots that might be traced to north american soil this division is a provisional experimental means of grouping nicaraguan poets based not on the traditional compartmentalization of literary generations but on the family resemblances of poetic affinities presented here is an effective analysis of the familial nature of the nicaraguan poets achieving their own literary independence by taking into account socio political and historical considerations common literary themes as well as the intertextual relations that form the basis of international literary dialogues this rigorous but flexible approach to modern nicaraguan poetry enables the reader to accompany the poets on their journeys toward god and the end of the world into a timeless nicaraguan landscape invaded by u s marines beyond a contemporary urban portrait of los angeles through the horrifying european battlefields of world war i and the trenches of nicaragua s revolution against the somoza dictatorship the english speaking reader probably will be unfamiliar with most of the seven preeminent nicarguan poets whose works are the subject of this book but it is hoped that the reader will realize that the poetry of nicaraguans alfonso cortes salomon de la selva jose coronel urtecho pablo antonio cuadra joaquin pasos carlos martinez rivas and ernesto cardenal is worthy of serious study furthermore the poems of these authors take on a richer meaning when they are studied as co presences in relation to certain texts by baudelaire rimbaud mallarme and supervielle or in an american context by poets such as whitman pound eliot and masters a relatively small country with a rich diverse tradition in poetry nicaragua has maintained high literary standards generation after generation and has produced poets of a world class stature whose time has come for greater recognition
